Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention (The USPTO examination guidelines define the term "species" as the "specifically different embodiments" of an invention disclosed in the patent application (see MPEP 806.04(e)):

- Species I: a network system having one device, comprising a request means, an input means, and a 2-ways communication means (examples of this situation are in claims 1-8,15-20).
- Species II (examples of this situation are in claims 9-12): a network system having 2 separate devices:
 - a first device comprising a request means, an input means, and a communication means;
 - a second device comprising an input means, and a communication means.
- Species III (example of this situation are in claims 13-14) a network system having 3 separate devices:

- a first device comprising a request means, an input means, and a communication means;
 - a second device comprising an input means, a communication means, and a status report means;
 - a third device comprising a notification means.
- Applicants are required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable (currently, claims 13-14 are the most narrowed claims that cover limitations in other claims).
- Applicants are advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicants will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicants must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicants traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case.

Applicants are advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
